

CODE OF ETHICS FOR SFIA CERTIFIED CONTRACTORS

Company shall maintain the eligibility requirements for each year the company holds the SFIA Contractor Certification and will notify SFIA if the location is unable to maintain compliance for more than two months.

Company shall make it known to its employees that they are adopting industry accepted application means and methods as outlined in the SFIA Certified Contractor program.

Company shall require application of the knowledge gained from the AWCI Steel—Doing It Right education program, or equivalent among its cold-formed steel framing supervisors and field force.

Company shall support employees as they abide by the Code of Conduct associated with their personal credential.

Company shall act in a professional manner and accurately represent the qualifications of an SFIA Certified Contractor to its clients and the industry in general.

Company shall give accurate, unbiased responses when the service includes advice.

Company shall avoid any involvement, activity or influence that might conflict with the best interests of all parties.

Company shall stay informed of new guidelines, standards, codes and procedures for the installation of cold-formed steel framing.

I agree to uphold both the requirements and the spirit of this Code and abide by its intent. I understand that failure to do so may have consequences, including loss of the corporate distinction.
